

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

NO. PD-0788-20

ENRIQUE ANGEL RAMOS, Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

ORDER REGARDING REPRESENTATION
HIDALGO COUNTY

Per curiam.

ORDER

Appellant was convicted of continuous sexual abuse of a child and prohibited sexual conduct in cause number CR-4652-16-D in the 206th District Court of Hidalgo County. Appellant was sentenced to confinement for 40 years and 5 years respectively. The court of appeals affirmed, in part, and modified, in part, the judgment of the trial court. Ramos v. State, No. 13-17-00429-CR (Tex. App. — Corpus Christi, delivered July 23, 2020). The State's petition for discretionary review was granted by this Court on October 21, 2020. Appellant is entitled to representation before this Court at this time. See Article 1.051(a)(d)(2), V.A.C.C.P. Appellant is without representation in this Court. Accordingly, the trial court is ordered to determine if Appellant is currently represented by counsel, and if so, to inform this court who represents Appellant. If Appellant is not currently represented by counsel and desires counsel, the trial court must first determine whether Appellant is indigent. If the trial court finds Appellant is indigent, that court shall appoint an attorney to represent Appellant before this court in regard to PDR No. PD-0788-20, in accord with the provisions of Articles 1.051 and 26.04, V.A.C.C.P. Any hearing conducted pursuant to this order shall be held within 20 days of the date of this order. The trial court's order appointing counsel, any findings of fact, affidavits, or transcription of the court reporter's notes and any other supplementation of the record shall be returned to this court within 30 days of the date of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS THE 6TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2020
